Crystallus™

Pre-configured industry solutions to accelerate business growth

Enterprises in the Business 4.0™ world are adopting a new set of behaviors to remain resilient, purpose-led and connected in a disruptive marketplace with a rapidly changing and competitive business environment. Focused on creating future-ready, intelligent and agile enterprises, businesses are embarking on digital transformation journeys. Almost all such transformations encompass risk, business disruption and substantial investment. To realize enterprise value rapidly from these transformations, there is a need to embrace proven industry best practices and business solutions.

TCS Crystallus™ is a set of pre-configured solutions that is contextualized to meet specific industry requirements. Built with TCS' domain expertise, contextual knowledge and industry best practices, the ready-to-use solutions leverage SAP digital core, intelligent technologies and SAP line of business solutions.

Overview

Organizations are looking to enhance customer responsiveness, accelerate time-to-market processes and ensure business differentiation and resilience. To keep abreast of the rapidly evolving business models, they recognize the criticality of a digital core powered by SAP. However, SAP S/4HANA adoption is often encumbered by cost and time constraints or concerns about business continuity. To ensure success, enterprises want solutions pre-configured with contextualized industry best practices and process automation capabilities. TCS helps organizations overcome these challenges.

TCS Crystallus offers a set of proven solutions powered by assets and accelerators, leveraging SAP S/4HANA as its digital core, to kick-start digital transformation journeys. The solutions include industry-specific templates and best practices, scenario process flows and solution blueprints along with a comprehensive document repository and enablement content. These solution sets, enriched with TCS experience across industries, lines of businesses and use-case scenarios, help maximize customer satisfaction and stakeholder value.

Solution

TCS Crystallus comprises the following distinctive features:

- Industry best practices: Streamlines enterprise capabilities and orchestrates processes more efficiently to meet industry demands
- Business solutions: Offers pre-configured business solution sets enriched with end-to-end optimized business process scenarios and comprehensive blueprints
- Industry innovations: Leverages new capabilities such as business process automation and embedded analytics of the SAP S/4HANA digital core and TCS industry solution to drive business outcomes
- Machine First Delivery Model™: Leverages TCS' MFDM™ framework to manage and further enhance the platform that perpetually transforms the intelligent enterprise

TCS has created pre-configured solution sets for various industry segments including life sciences, hi-tech, professional services and travel and transportation, and for several lines of businesses. The solution can be adopted independently or can be deployed along with SAP Model Company and value assurance services
