

Reliance Communications transforms its international voice wholesale business with Oline Nebula

Reliance Communications Inc (RCI), USA, future-proofs its international voice business and seamlessly transforms its international network with Oline Nebula Solution

ISTANBUL, June 2, 2021 /PRNewswire/

Oline Solutions, 360° Systems Integrator, Platforms and Applications provider, announces that Reliance Communications (RCI) has chosen 'Oline Nebula', Oline's Wholesale Cloud Platform, to drive their seamless International Wholesale Voice business' global evolution.

Working with Oline will empower Reliance not only to remove legacy equipment and physical locations to drive down cost, but more importantly it will allow them to future proof their network by taking advantage of Oline Nebula's automation and intelligence, as well as its end-to-end real-time control and visibility capabilities.

The solution will bring high-performance, real-time dynamic routing policy and optimization, and a comprehensive set of monitoring and alerting tools for all of Reliance's international voice interconnections. The deep visibility and control capabilities provided by Oline Nebula Solution will also enable them to optimize their complex swap and bilateral wholesale voice deals.

"Working with Oline Solutions enables us to seamlessly transform our international network and rapidly integrate it with our existing national network in India. The Oline Nebula Solution enables us to gain unprecedented levels of routing, automation and intelligence capabilities in the cloud, empowering us to drive global growth efficiently," says Amit Gaur, Head Voice Products – Carriers and Enterprises at Reliance Communications.

Nick Cowley, Global Sales Director, said the Oline Nebula Solution, is a proven solution to enable operators to drive down cost, risk and complexity in the network and provide unprecedented levels of visibility and business intelligence, which will be key to the evolution of Reliance's voice business globally.

Alper Tunga Burak, CEO of Oline Solutions also commented, "Reliance Communications (RCI) selecting Oline Solutions shows our fast-growing presence in the global Tier-1 market, and how strongly we can support the digital transformations global operators must make going forward, we welcome Reliance onboard and look forward to empowering their future success."
