INDUSTRIES

A remarkable customer experience is imperative to the consistent growth of any business. A positive customer experience promotes loyalty, helps retain customers, and encourages brand advocacy.

We have carefully crafted personalized journeys for multiple industries that tackle each touchpoint your customers interact with.

These journeys are unique, effective, convenient, and personalized; & their sole purpose is to act like a 24/7 digital assistant to your customers.

aiTelecom

aiTelecom is a platform designed for Mobile Network Operators.

Its purpose is to guide your subscribers from the moment they join your network and assist them throughout their journey with your brand.

It can help Operators by integrating with their BI, CRM, CVM, and other systems to access the needed data to segment the subscribers and send them recommendations for services and offers that are relevant to them.

You can subscribe to different services and bundles through SMS, USSD, IVR, and through our mobile app

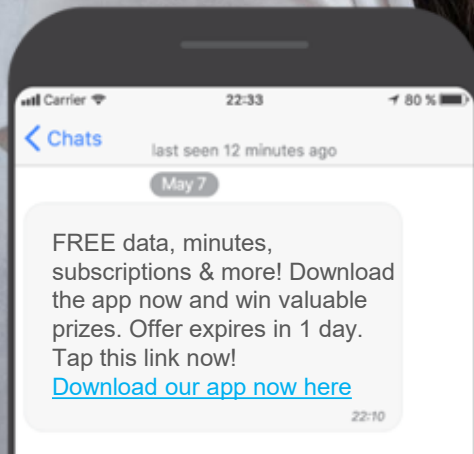

Recharge your line, subscribe to different services, and receive personalized offers. Download our app now!

USE CASES

- Subscribers often feel confused and overwhelmed when buying a SIM from a new operator. Guide them during the first couple of weeks by sending informative, relevant, and contextual messages that will allow them to have a seamless onboarding process.
- MNOs operate in a highly competitive market; subscribers can easily switch to another operator if they feel like they're not getting their money's worth. Keep your subscribers engaged by recommending relevant offers and bundles!
- Automate the ideal customer journey by listening to your customers and identifying pain points.
- Manage high call volumes and reduce wait times by giving your subscribers the option to switch to a faster channel.

 aiTelecom
