Corporate social responsibility

At Virtusa, our transformation goals span beyond our clients and the services and solutions we provide. We focus our business and talents on improving the communities that need it the most, including those where we work and live.

Sustainability: Our business practices and operations focus on improving environmental performance and bettering the environment for the future through partnerships like our Forest Restoration Initiative.

Volunteerism: We connect our employees with non-profit organizations serving disadvantaged communities and, in the wake of unforeseen events to use their talents for good by working on educational, digital, and technology-based projects.

Support: As a global organization, we recognize what affects one part of the world creates a ripple effect that impacts all of our employees, clients, and partners. We work as a team to support those in need when they need it through company-matched contributions like our Covid Care Fund during India and Sri Lanka's second COVID-19 wave.

Values: We stay true to our founding principles and keep our values of passion, innovation, respect, and leadership at the core of everything we do.
